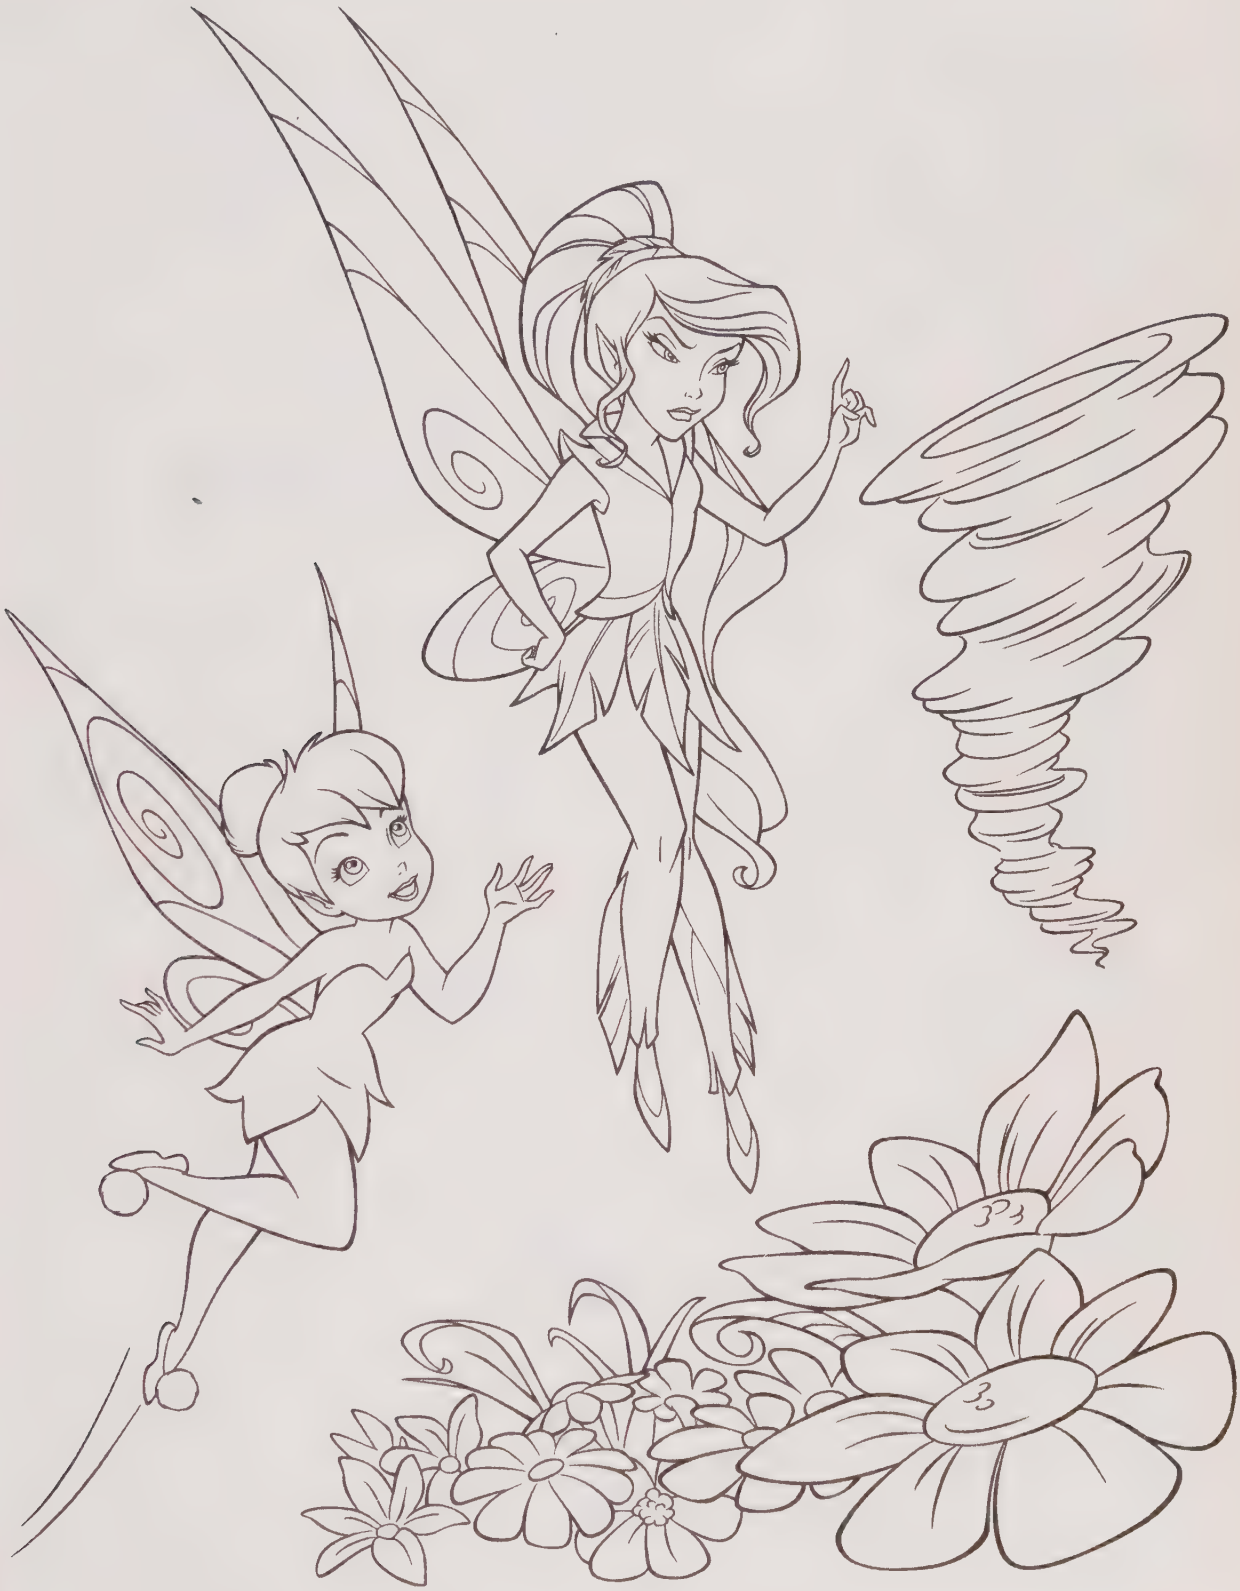
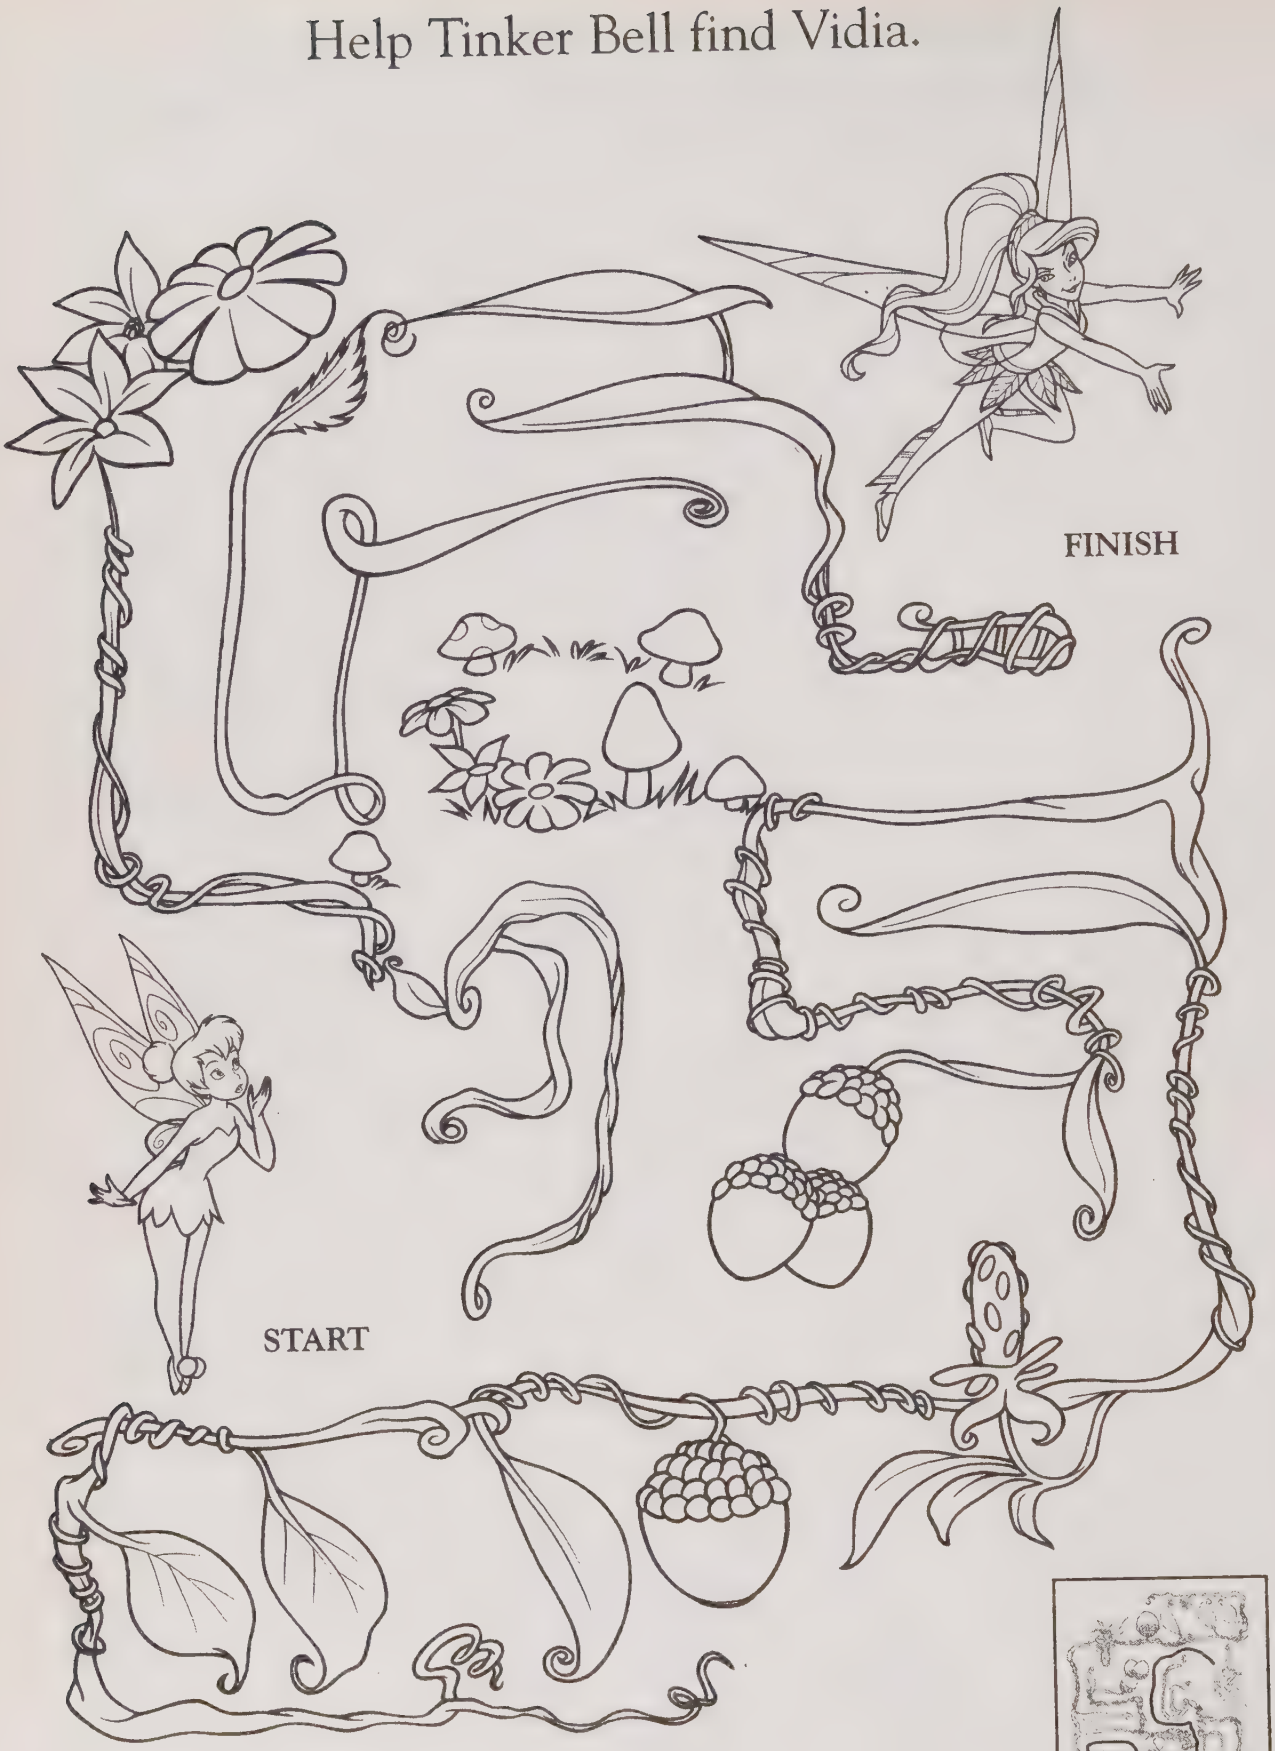
Tinker Bell watches Vidia in the meadow.
She wants to learn more about Vidia's talent.



©Disney

Help Tinker Bell find Vidia.



ANSWER:

Vidia explains to Tinker Bell that their talents are very different. "I am a fast-flying fairy," she says. "Fairies of every talent depend on me."

©Disney

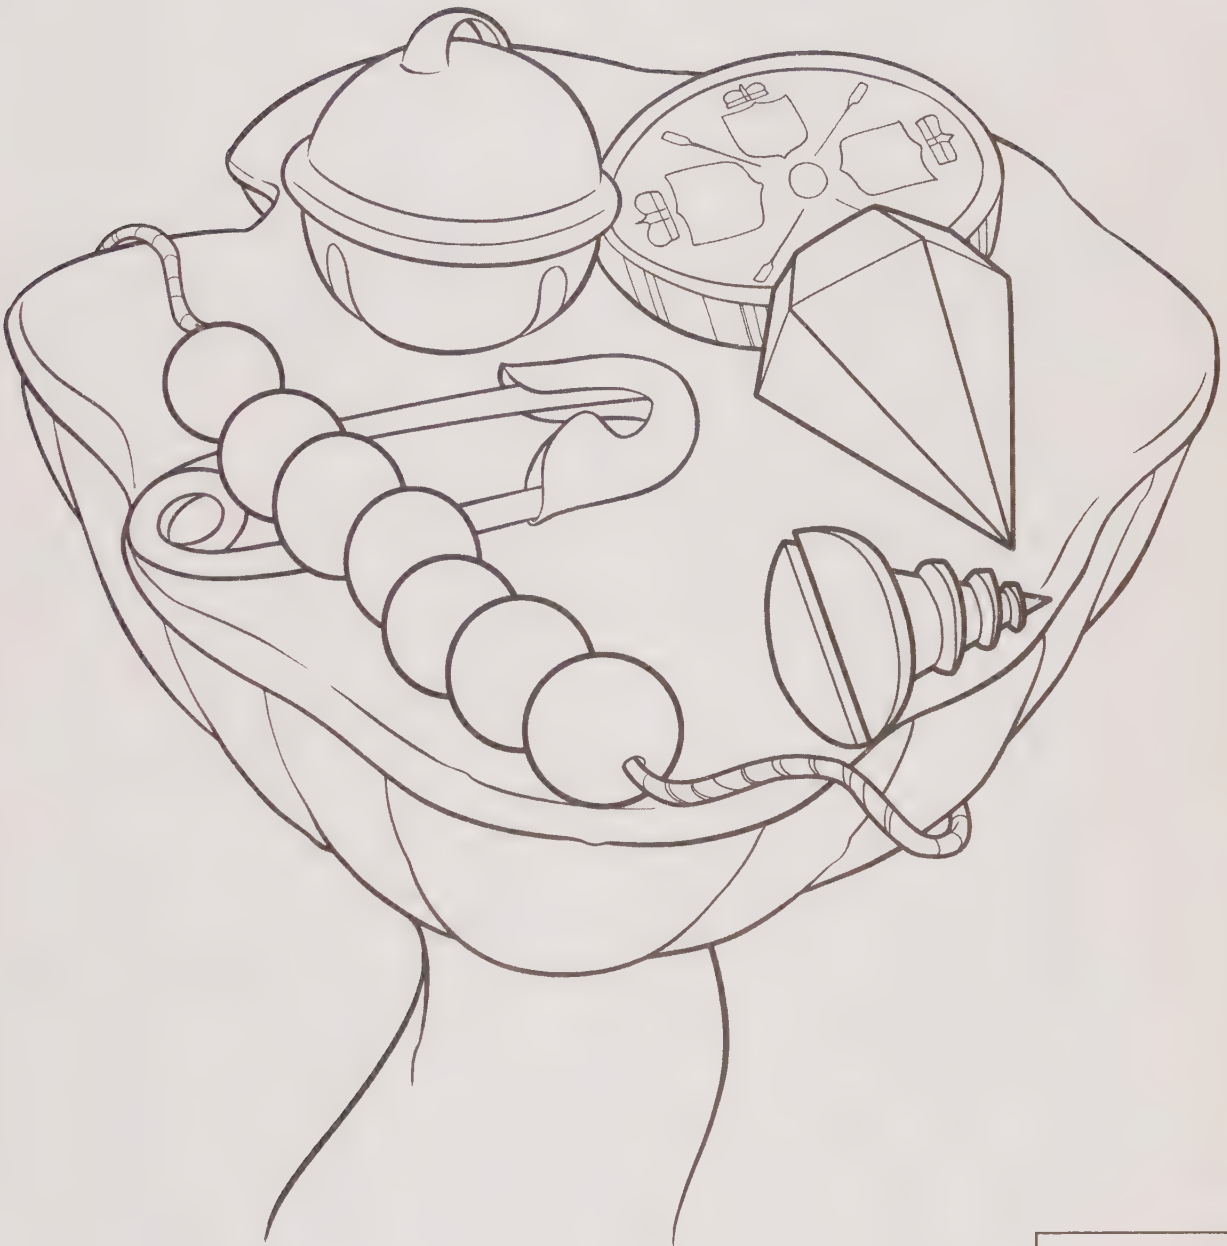
"I work up in the sky and you work in a ditch," says Vidia. "It's not like spring depends on you."

"When I go to the mainland, I'll prove just how important tinkers are!" exclaims Tinker Bell.

©Disney

On her way back to the tinkers' workshop, Tinker Bell discovers a bunch of little treasures in a cove.

Can you find the coin on Tink's worktable? Circle it.



ANSWER:

©Disney

Tinker Bell is excited about her treasures, but Fairy Mary doesn't approve of the trinkets Tink found.

"It's time for Queen Clarion's Review," Bobble explains to Tinker Bell. She can't wait to show the queen her new inventions!

©Disney

"I came up with some fantastic things for tinkers to use when we go to the mainland!" Tinker Bell tells Queen Clarion.

"Tinker fairies don't go to the mainland," says Queen Clarion. "Your work is here in Pixie Hollow."

©Disney

Tinker Bell is disappointed about what Queen Clarion has told her. But then she gets an idea!

©Disney

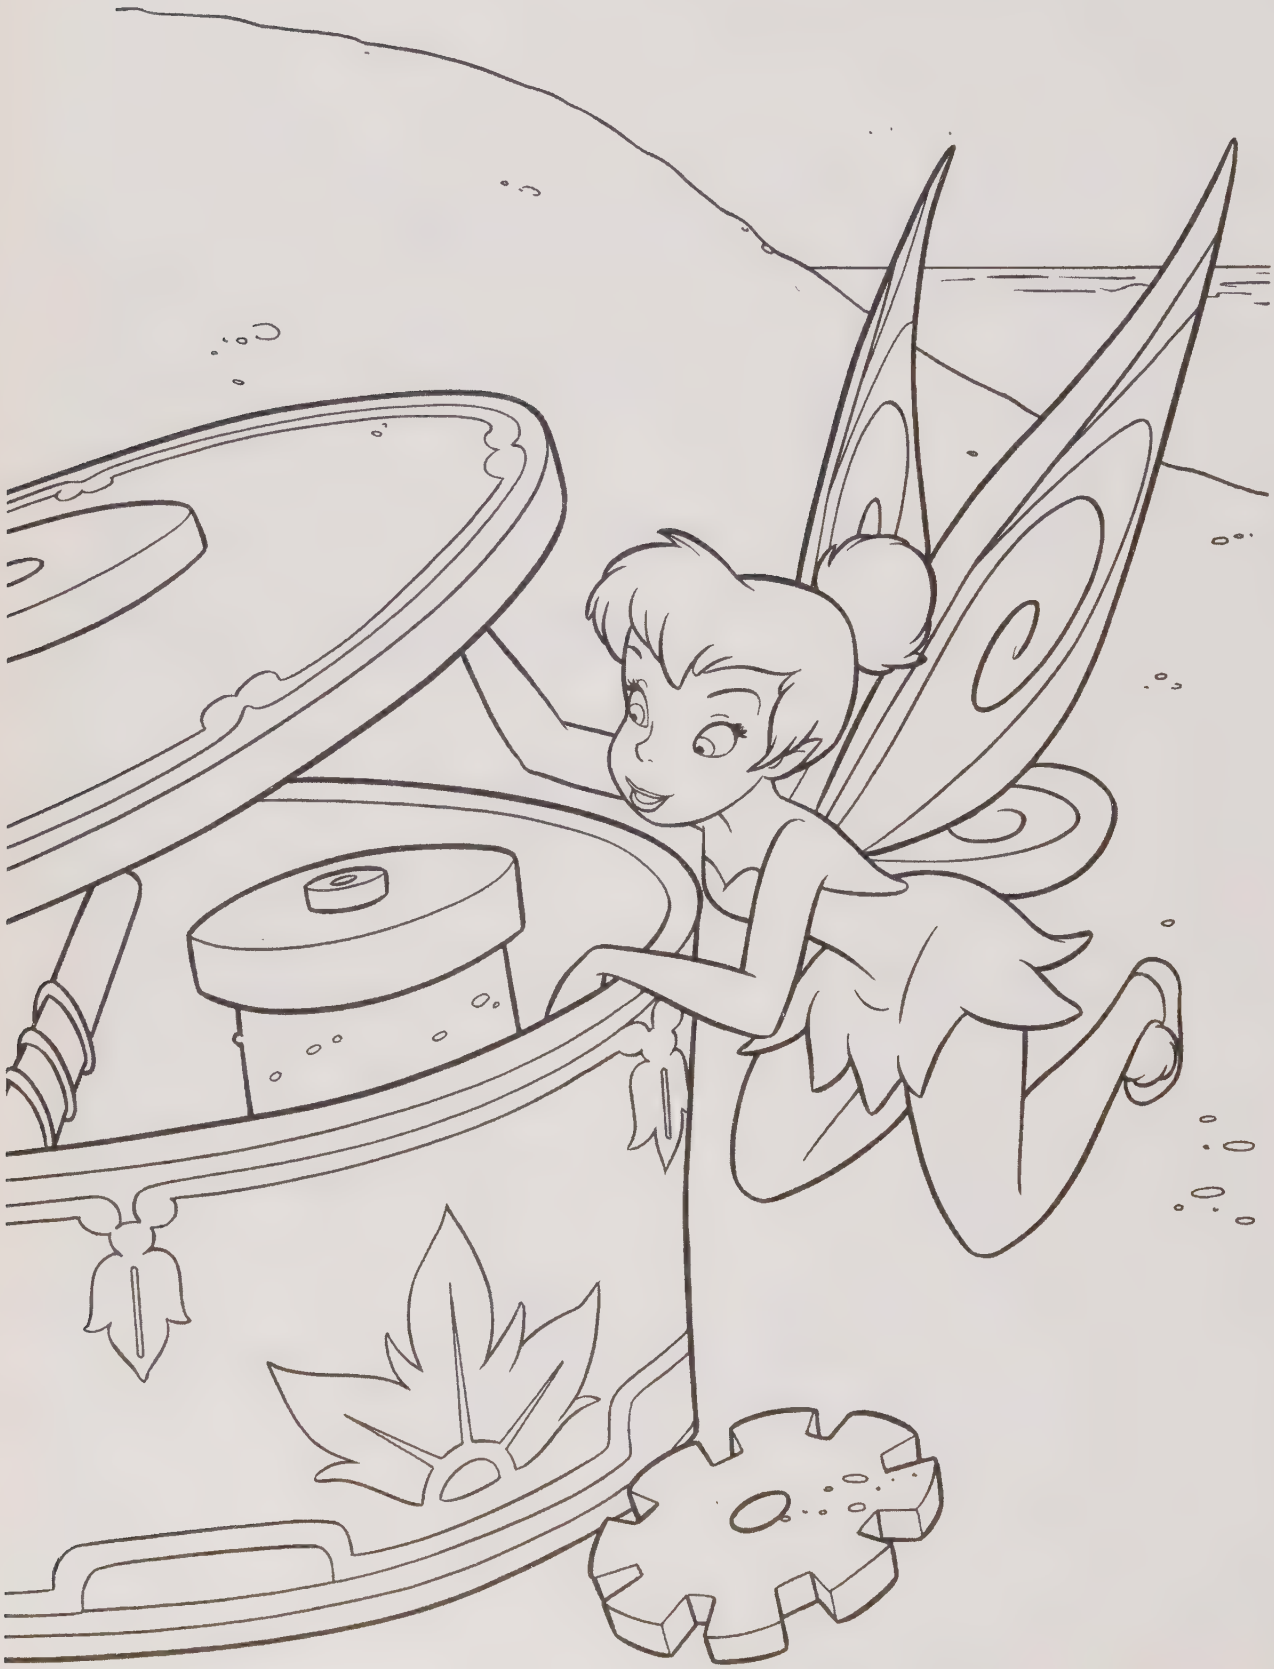
Tinker Bell has found a beautiful music box.
She starts to put it together.



In no time, Tinker Bell fixes the music box,
and it starts to play!

©Disney

Tinker Bell's friends have been watching her fix the music box. They are amazed at what she can do!

"You're tinkering!" cheers Rosetta.

©Disney

Tinker Bell feels as if the other fairies are giving up on teaching her their talents. "But I think this is your talent," says Rosetta.

Tinker Bell still just wants her friends to help her get to the mainland.

©Disney

Tinker Bell thinks that Vidia is her last hope for getting to the mainland. She asks Vidia to help her become a garden fairy.

Vidia decides to play a trick on Tinker Bell. She suggests that Tink try to capture the dangerous Sprinting Thistles.

©Disney

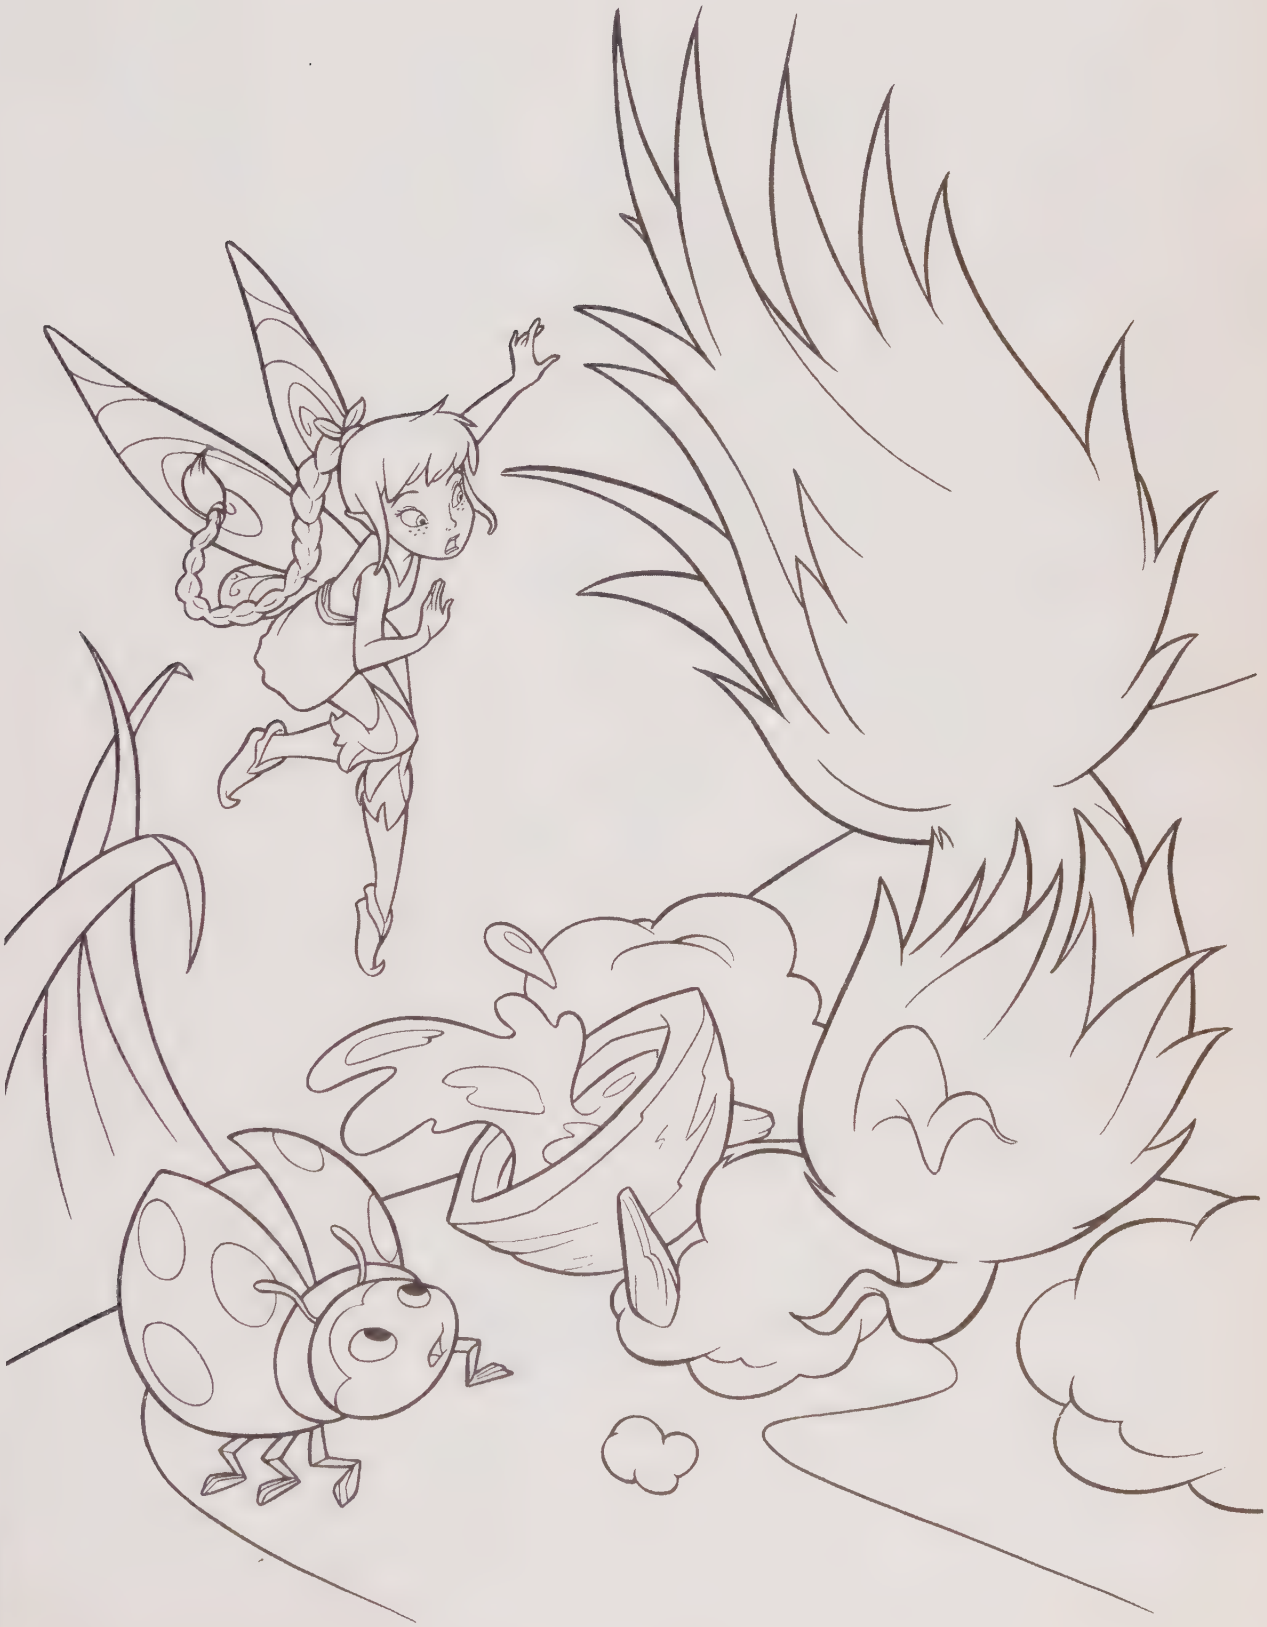
Tinker Bell decides to try Vidia's idea.

Vidia is not happy when she sees that Tinker Bell can easily round up the Thistles.

©Disney

Vidia creates a gust of wind to blow away all the Thistles Tinker Bell has captured. Circle the biggest bunch of Thistles to help Tinker Bell hold them back.

The escaped Thistles destroy everything in their path—including all the work the fairies have done to get ready for spring!



©Disney

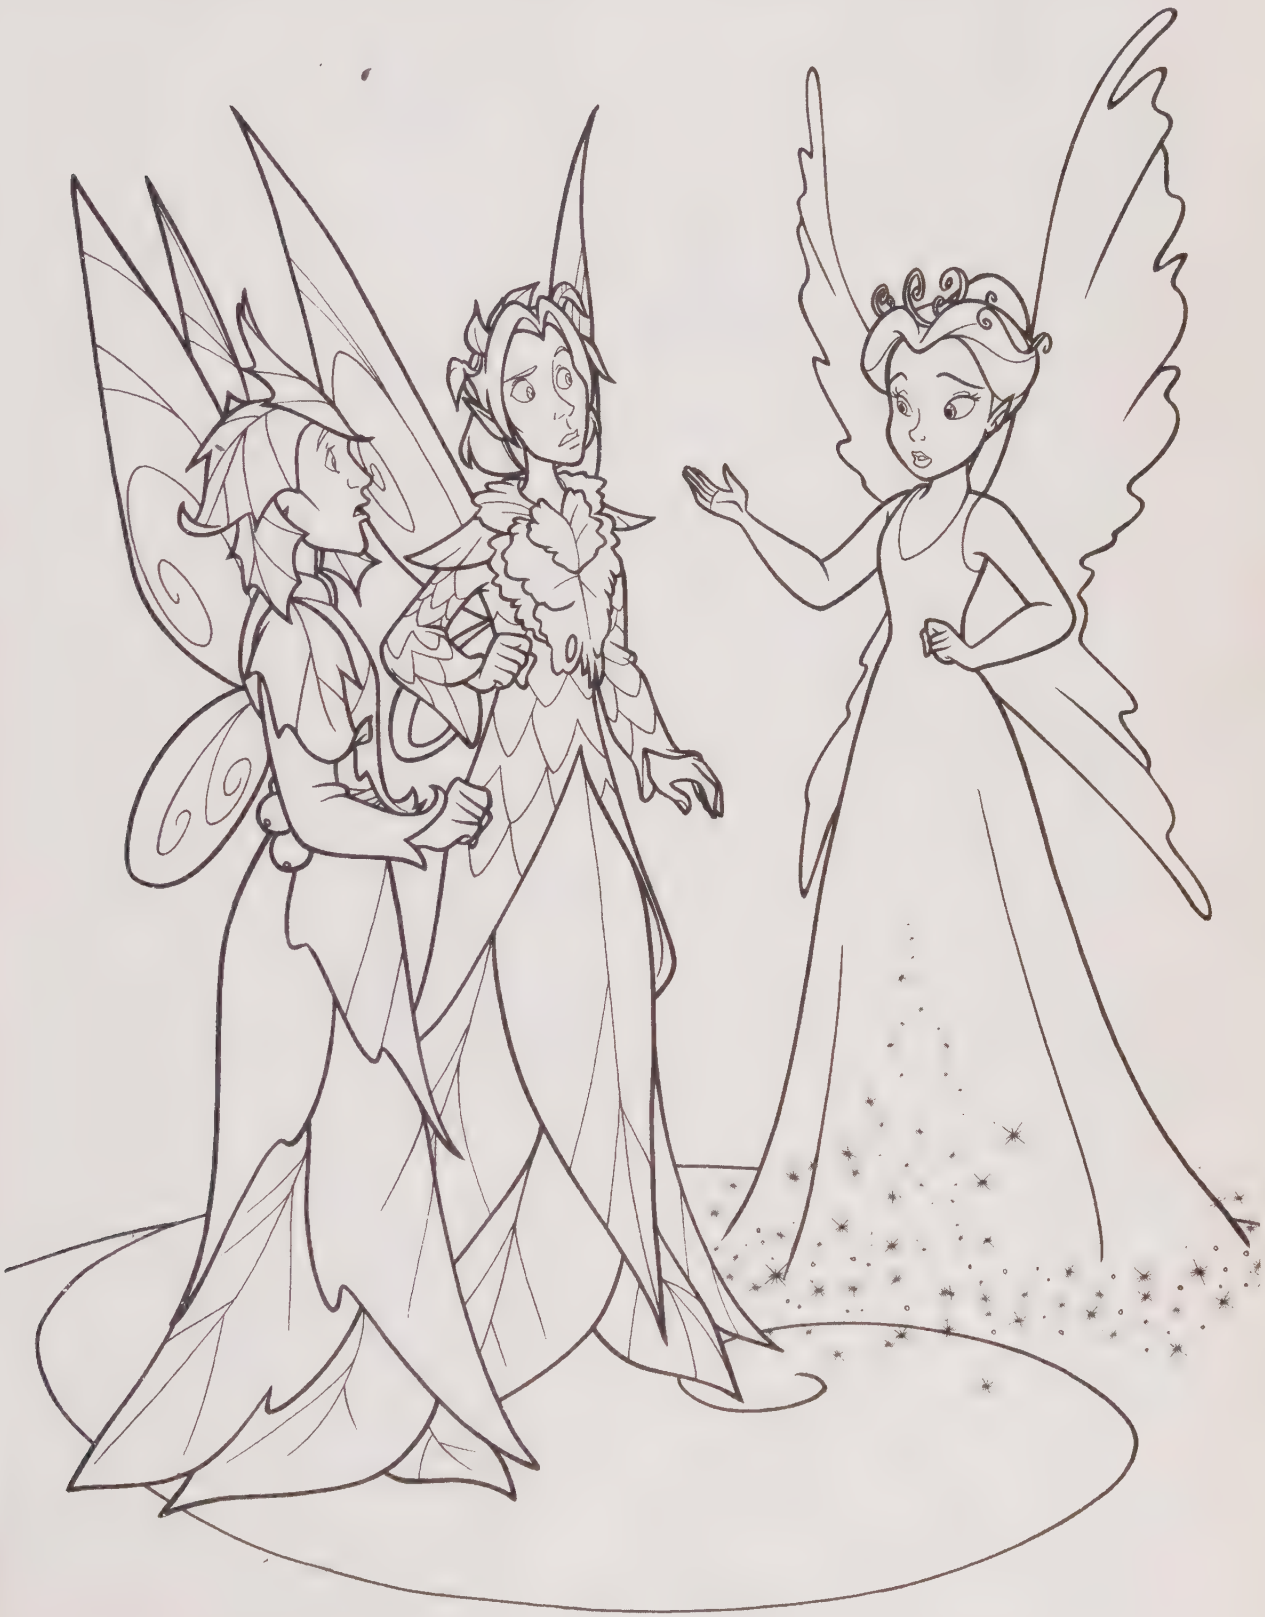
"No garden fairy can control those weeds," Rosetta scolds Tinker Bell. "What were you trying to prove?"

"She's right," adds Silvermist. "This has all gone too far."

©Disney

When Queen Clarion arrives to find the mess, she is upset. Tinker Bell tells the queen that it is all her fault and that she is very sorry.

"We're going to have to cancel spring or celebrate it late, at the very least!" cries the Minister of Spring. "Spring must happen on time," demands the Minister of Autumn. "Or the balance of nature will be undone!"

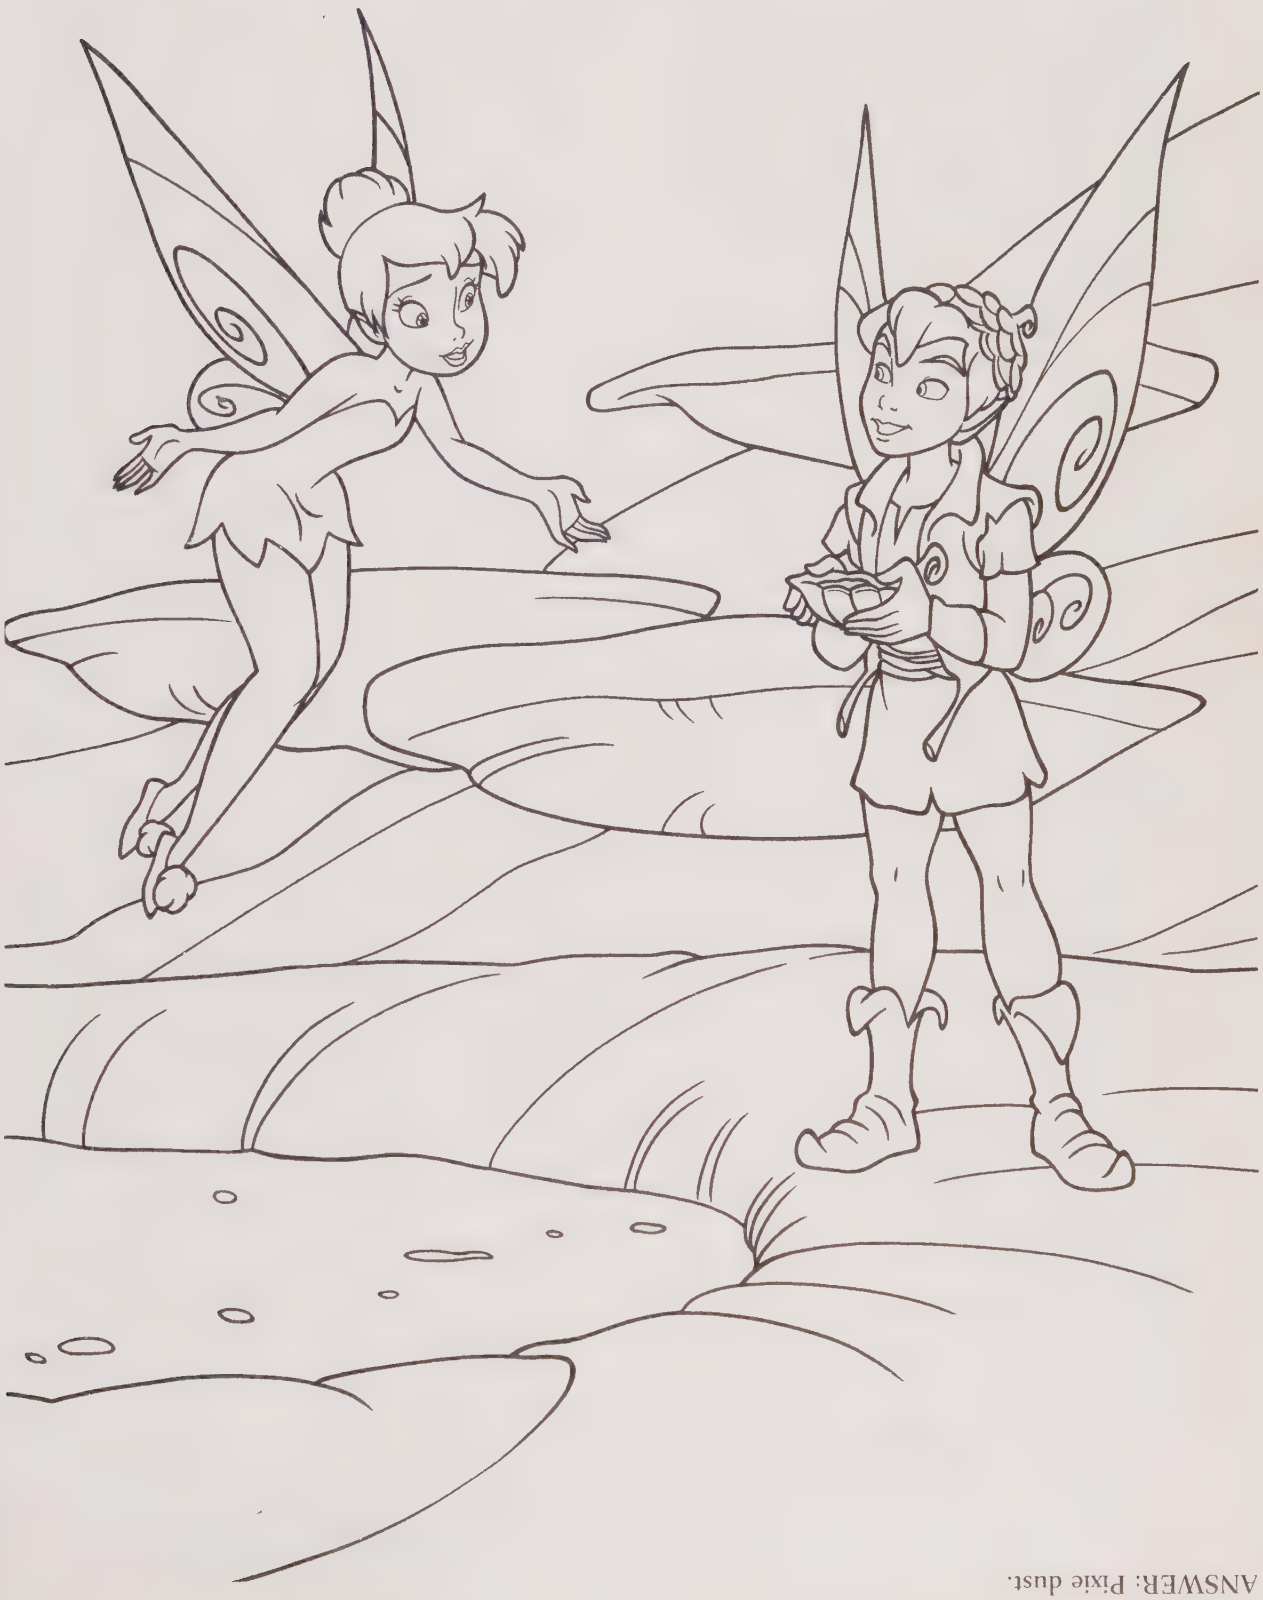


©Disney

Queen Clarion asks Fairy Mary if anything can be done to save spring. Fairy Mary says it is too late.

Tinker Bell pays a visit to Terence.
Unscramble the letters to find out what he gives her.

X I E P I S D T U

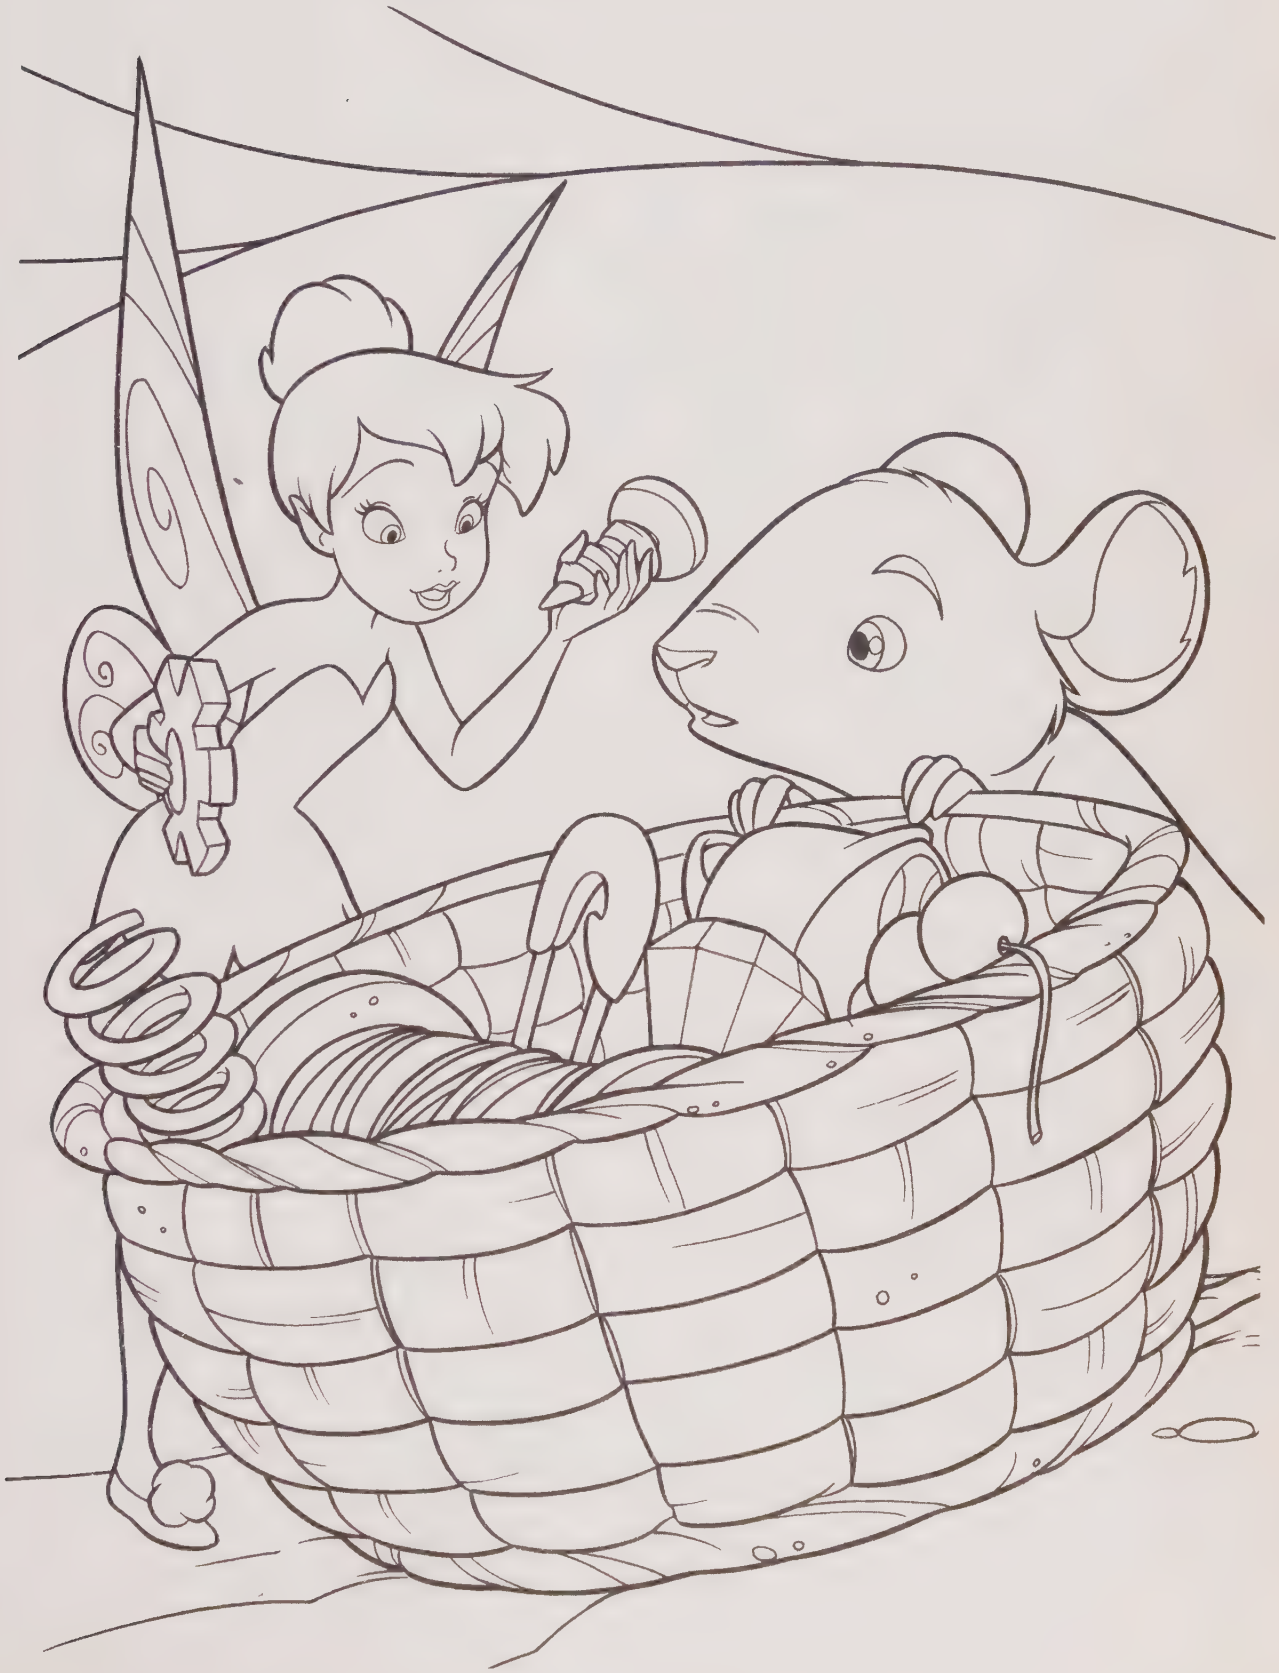


©Disney

ANSWER: Pixie dust.

Terence tells Tinker Bell that he is proud to be a dust-keeper.

Tinker Bell begins to understand that she needs to be proud of her talent, too. She returns to the workshop and gets an idea.

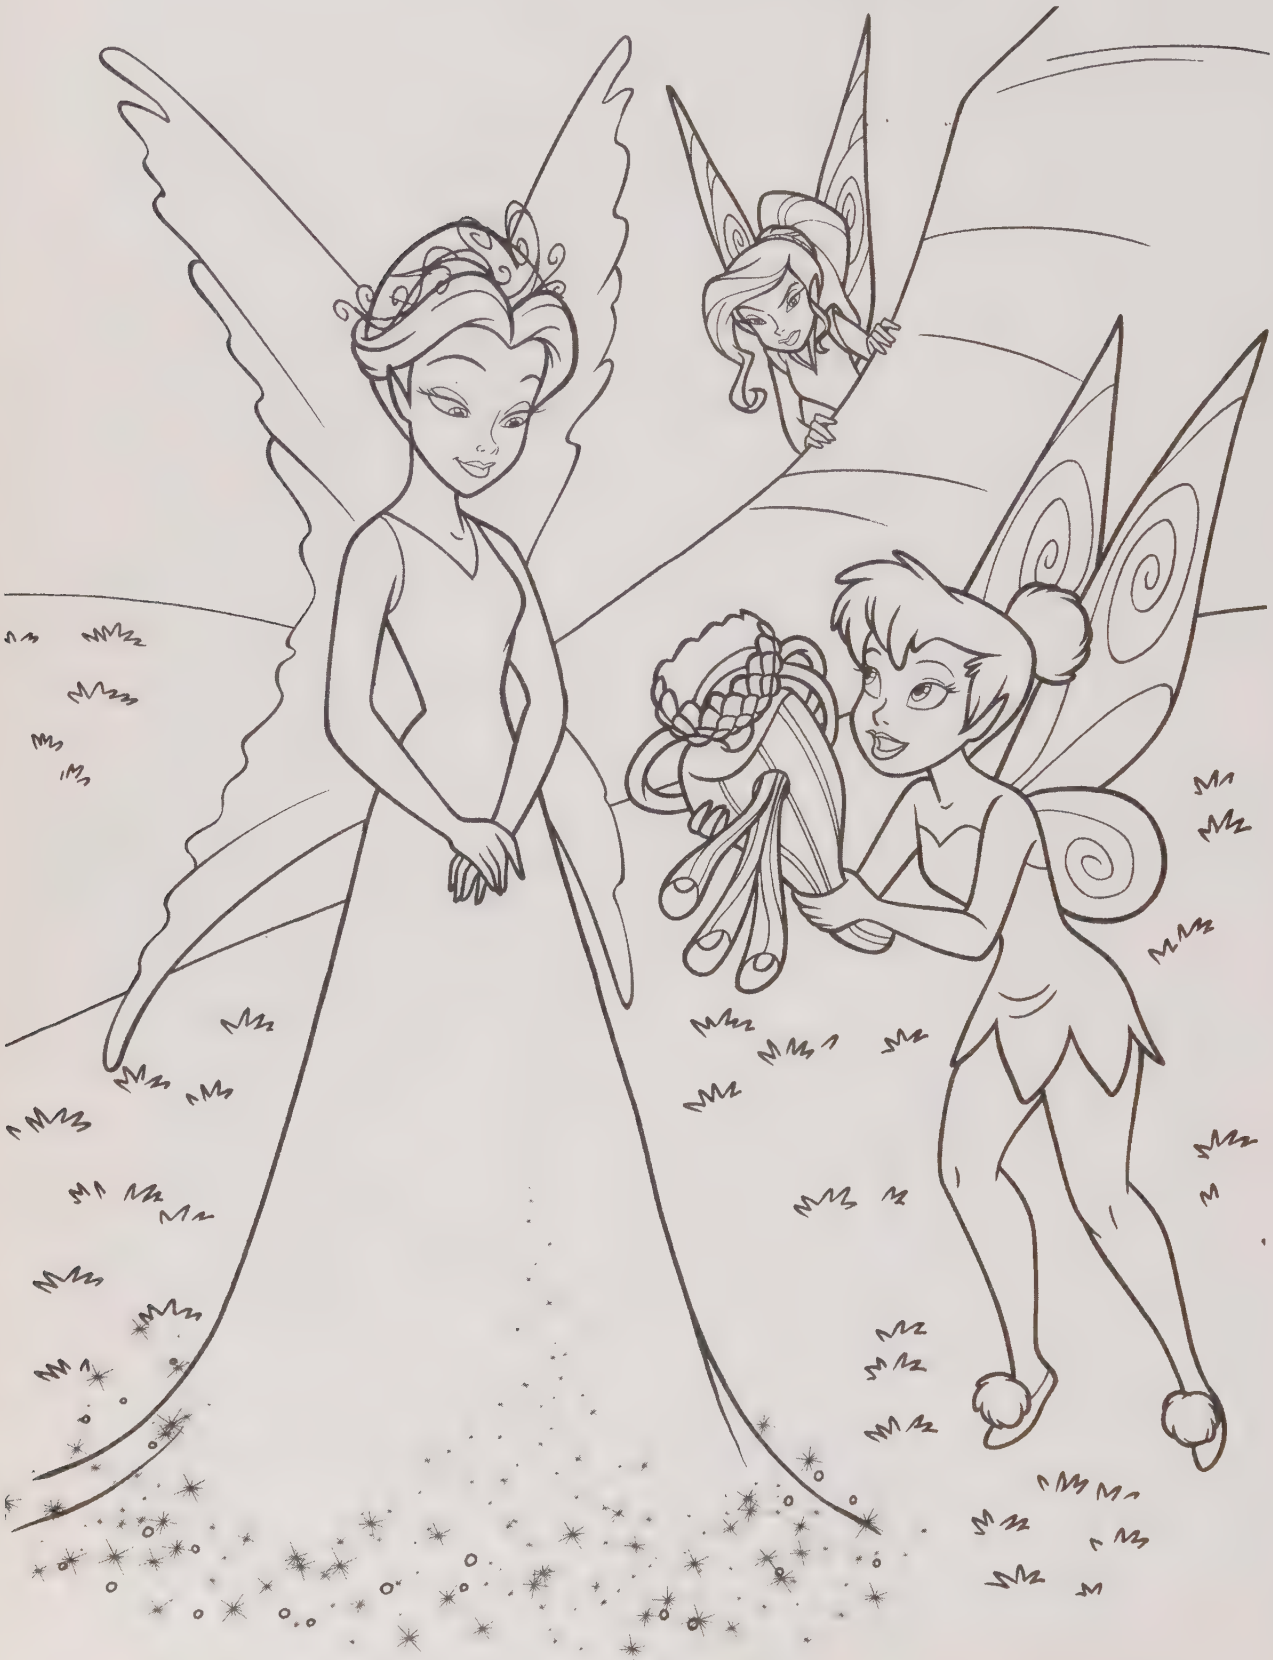


©Disney

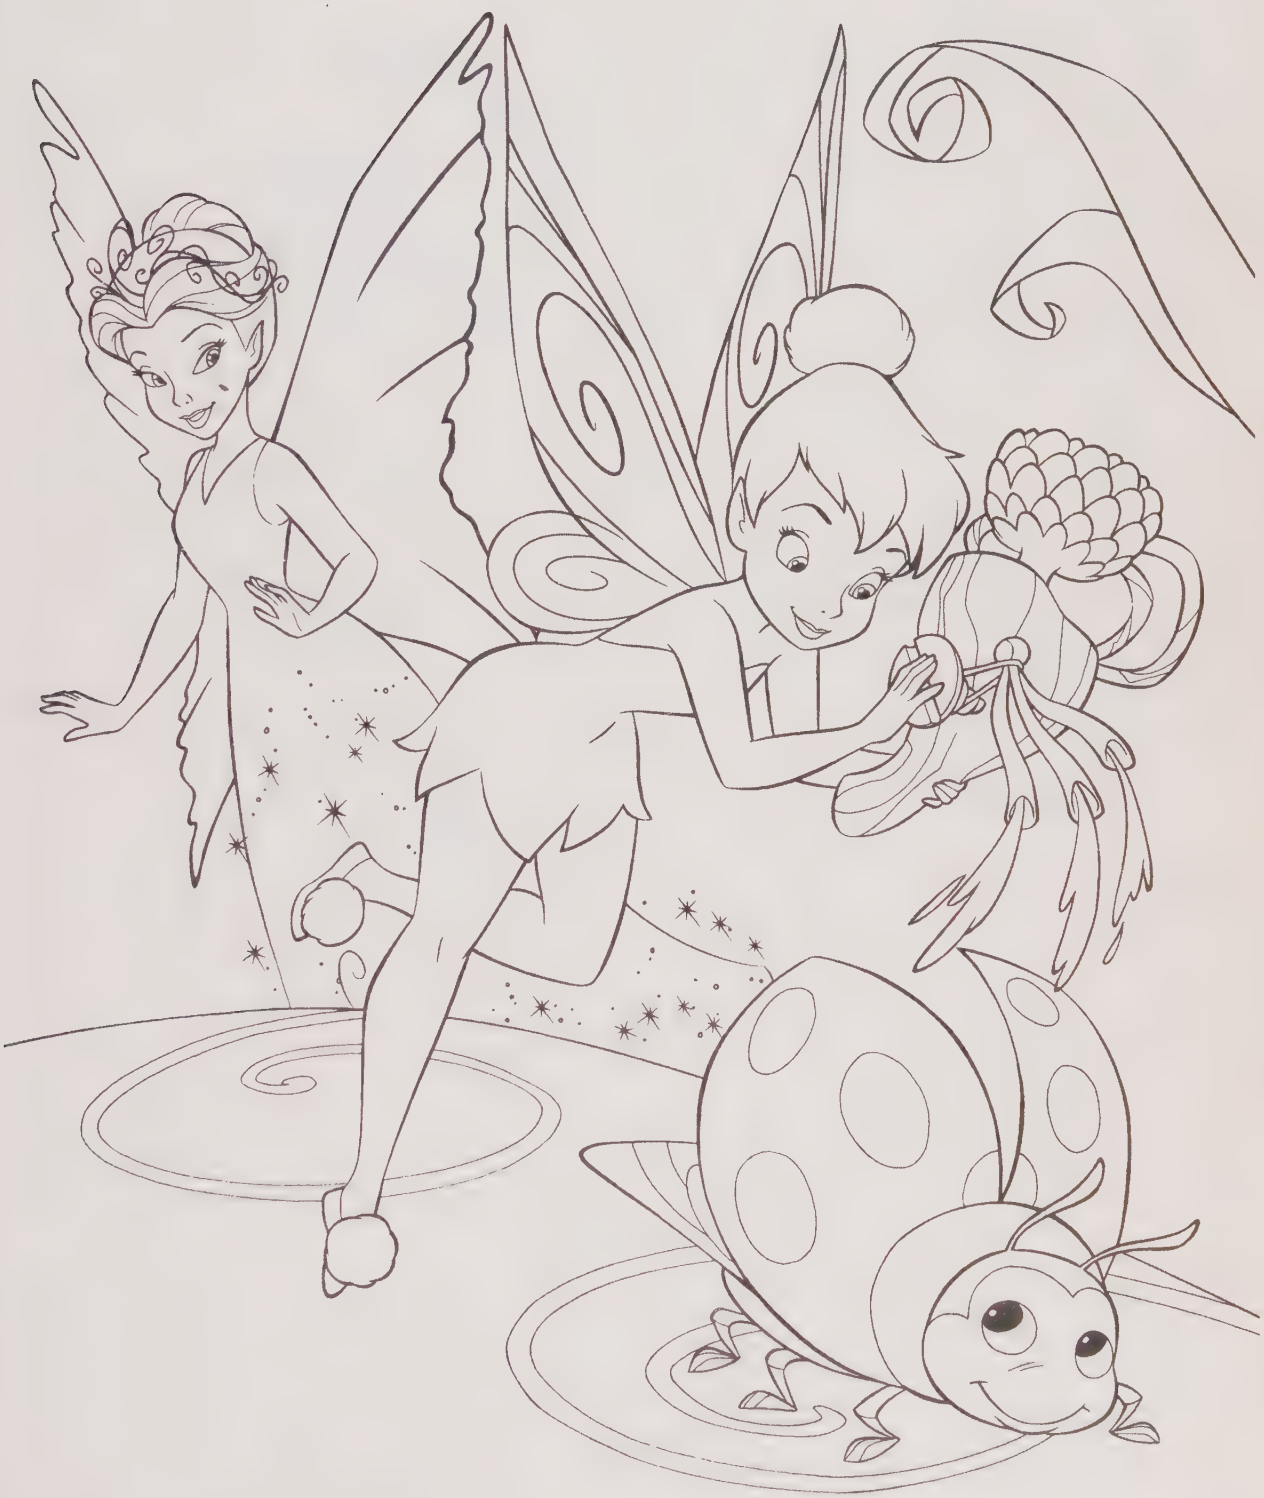
Queen Clarion tells the fairies that spring can't be saved. "I'm afraid we will not be going to the mainland for spring," she says.

©Disney

Just when everyone is about to give up,
Tinker Bell returns. "Wait!" she cries.
"I know how we can fix things!"



Tinker Bell shows everyone how her inventions can save spring. She quickly helps give a ladybug its spots!



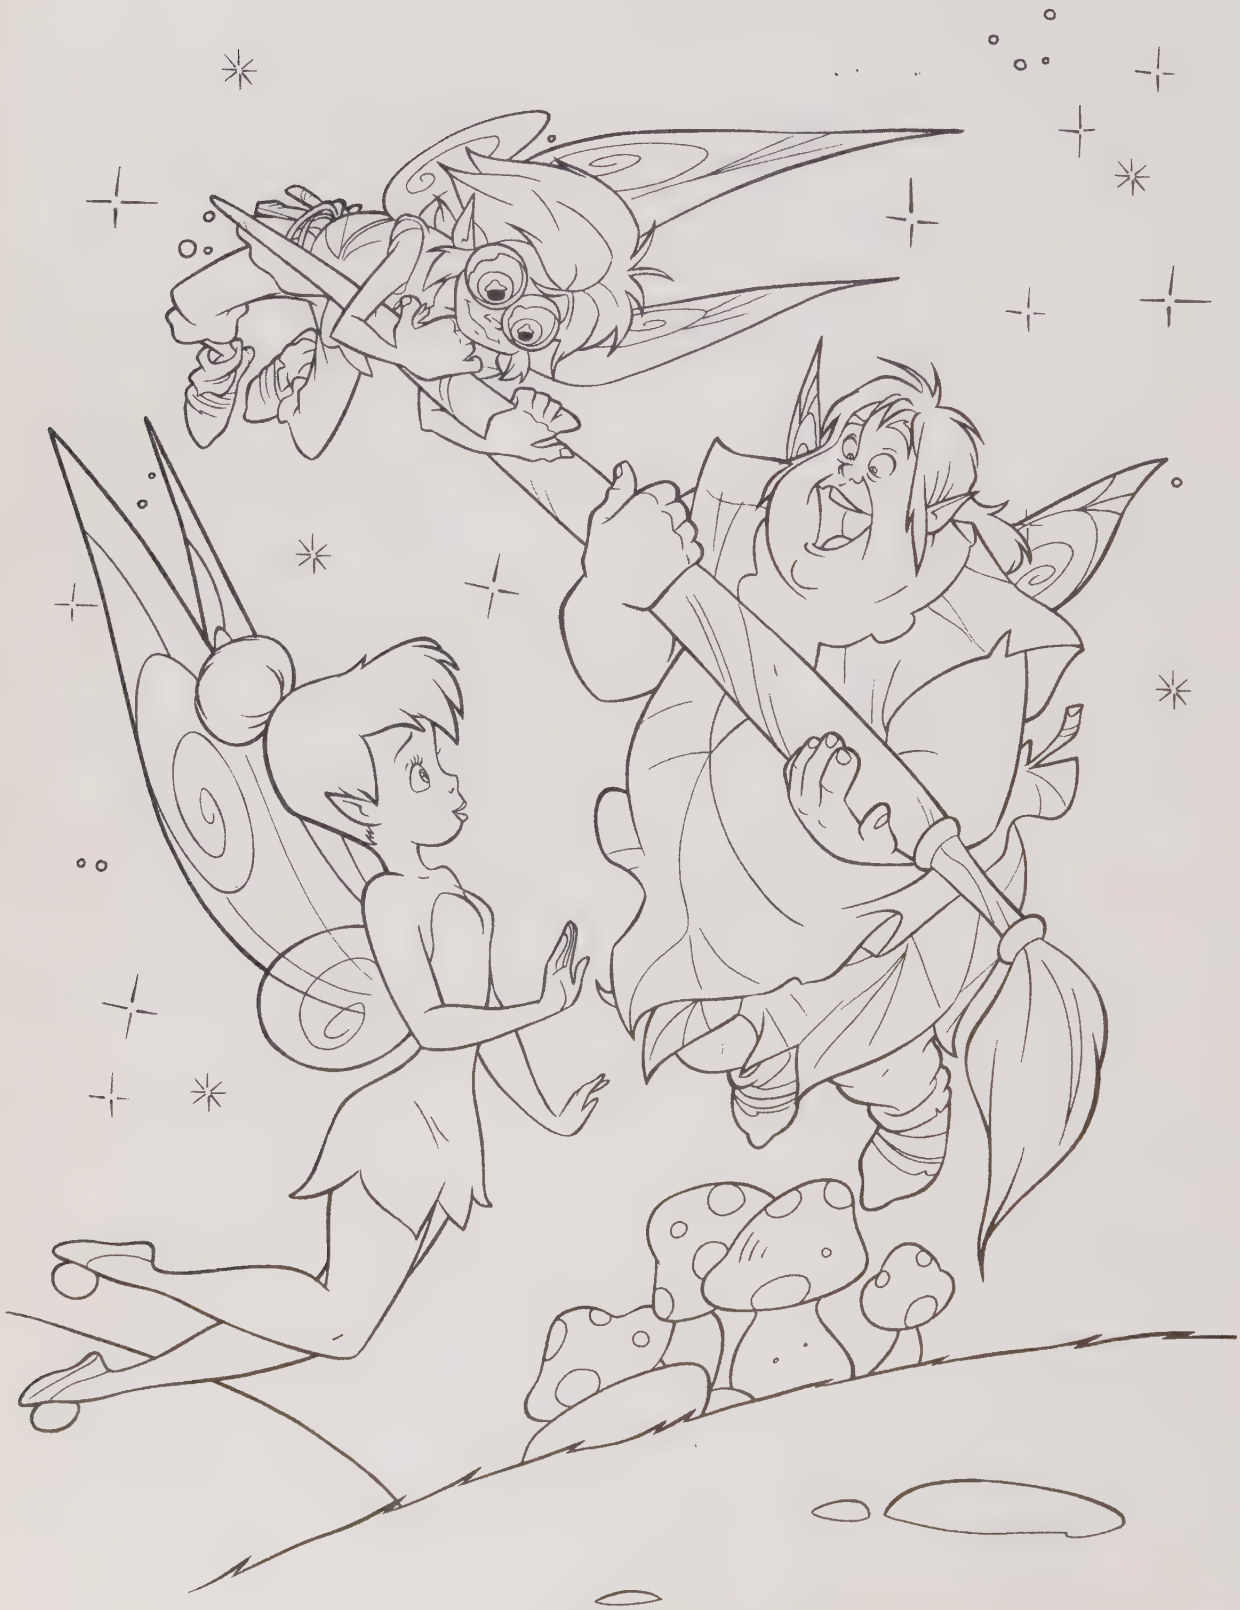
©Disney

Vidia is still angry with Tinker Bell.
"She's the reason that we're in this mess
in the first place!" says Vidia.

But Queen Clarion discovers that Vidia may have had something to do with Tinker Bell's mistake with the Thistles. She tells Vidia to use her fast-flying talent to chase down all the loose Thistles.

©Disney

Queen Clarion allows Tinker Bell to do whatever it takes to make spring arrive. Clank and Bobble ask Tinker Bell how they can help.



Everyone works together to save spring! Since Tinker Bell has done so much, the other fairies ask Queen Clarion if she can go to the mainland after all.

©Disney

Just then, Fairy Mary appears with Tinker Bell's music box. "I came across this many seasons ago," she says. "I didn't have a clue what it was, or how to fix it. But you did, Tinker Bell."

Fairy Mary says that Tinker Bell needs to go to the mainland to find the box's owner. Before Tink leaves, Terence gives her something that will help her during the trip.
